Summary

The Chief Marketing Officer (CMO) is the visionary behind an organisation's brand, customer experience, and growth strategy. As the leader of the marketing function, the CMO translates business goals into customer-focused initiatives, balancing creativity with data-driven decision-making to drive results.

This course equips current and aspiring CMOs with the knowledge, skills, and mindset to lead marketing teams, build strong brands, and deliver measurable business impact. Participants will explore brand strategy, customer engagement, digital transformation, analytics, and leadership practices to excel at the highest level of marketing leadership.
