

Adaptive Leadership in a VUCA World: Leading Through Uncertainty

Duration: 5 Days

Language: en

Course Code: MG1-112

Objective

Upon completion of this comprehensive 5-day course, participants will be able to:

- Foster a culture of respect and appreciation within their teams.
- Empower team members to recognise and leverage their own capabilities.
- Earn the respect of others by demonstrating exemplary leadership qualities.
- Implement adaptive leadership practices and qualities to respond to evolving challenges effectively.

Audience

This comprehensive course caters to a diverse audience, including:

- Leaders and managers involved in driving organisational change processes.

- Department managers navigating complex change initiatives.
- Strategic decision-makers seeking to lead effectively in a VUCA environment.
- Team leaders tasked with implementing challenging change initiatives.
- Leaders striving to maintain continuity and drive success amidst VUCA challenges.

Training Methodology

This course uses a variety of adult learning styles to aid full understanding and comprehension. Participants will view real-world scenarios and case studies on videos to determine the best and worst ways to handle practical situations as managers.

They will also review various management tools to prepare them for important decision-making and financial issues.

They will also undergo group activities to understand the impact of their decisions on the environment, economy, and the wider business, emphasising the importance of planning and effective project management. They will then participate in role-playing activities to deal with difficult situations and improve their communication skills to attract and negotiate with key stakeholders.

Summary

In today's fast-paced corporate landscape, leaders often grapple with overwhelming responsibilities amidst the ever-evolving VUCA challenges - Volatility, Uncertainty, Complexity, and Ambiguity. This course offers a candid exploration of leadership strategies essential for navigating through turbulent times. Participants will learn to cultivate empathetic behaviours, prioritise team well-being, and adaptively lead their teams towards success in a constantly changing environment.
